SCHORR STABLE ON MARKET

LEADING AMERICAN OWNER OF LAST YEAR WOULD LIKE TO RETIRE FROM TURF.

Stable Will Be Divided Between This Country and Canada and Continue to Race if Owner Is Unable to Obtain Fair Prices for the Horses.

The report has been in circulation that John W. Schorr, of Memphis, Tenn., who headed the list of the money-winning owners of the racing thoroughbred in America last year with stable carnings of 885, 526, is contemplating retirement from the turf as an owner. Due report that came from New York had It that Alexander Smith Cochran, a wealthy eastern patron of racing, has been negotiating for the Schorr horses and might buy them. It was represented that Mr. Schorr's object in retiring would be that he might devote his time and money to combating the "dry" movement in sonthern states, which vitally concerns him because a large part of his big fortune is invested in the brewing landistry.

states, which vitally concerns him because a large-part of his blg fortune is invested in the brewing industry.

In reply to a query as to the truth of these reports, Mr. Schorr telegraphed baily Raeing Formfrom Memphis yesterday as follows:

"I will sell all any horses if I can get fair prices and retire. I'p to now I have had no offers of any kind. If I can't sell them, I shall race half of my horses in Kentucky and the east and the other half in tunada. I have thirty horses hi training, including ten twe-year-olds, cleven three-year-olds and others older. I have this year by far the best stable I ever had.

The horses whose winnings put Mr. Schorr, "The horses whose winnings put Mr. Schorr," the herses whose winnings put Mr. Schorr, it have the head of the whining owners list last season include Luke McLuke, David Uralg, Ed Crump, Leochares, Annt Josic, Mars Cassidy, Golderest Girl, Geo, Roesch, Vandergrift, Star Shooter, Gold-helling, Dengro and Birdie Williams Mr. Schorr also awas some promising two-year-olds carefully selected in sentincky last season as yearlings.

JUAREZ HAS A DISQUALIFICATION.

California Jack Is Placed Last After Finishing First in Race and Marie Coghill Benefits.

El Paso. Tex.. March 12.—The track at Juarez was in worse condition loday than during the preceding days, being sticky and holding. The card carried no special feature.

The chief Incident of the day's racing was the disquatineation of California Jack after that colt from J. E. Dwyer's stable had fluished first in the third race. Jockey Gross had the mount on California Jack and steered his mount from the course lewas following well out in the track to the inside when it became apparent that Marie Coghill was about to wrest the lead from him. Jockey Stirling was forced to pull Marie Coghill up sharply. The stewards lost no time in placing California Jack last after a claim of foul had been entered. Rooster was the favorite for this race and the change in the placing gave him third money. He was eliminated as a serious cantender for the purse by an unlucky head at the start, getting away a poor last.

Orimer Lad was the first favorite to score during the arternoon. He won the fourth in a drive with Safraner. The following race brought victory for another first choice when Bernmdian beat Durin a head, reversing the outcome of their meeting a day or two ago. Three of the remaining purses went to horses at reminierative odds.

The stewards dealt summarily with jockey Gross for his r ugh riding tactics on California Jack and suspended him for the remainder of the meeting.

The Windsor race course is just now occupied as a remount center for horses for British army purposes which have been purchased in the I mirel States and brought into Canada from the west. The British war office purchasers are leaving an enormous amount of money with I ultied States breeders, their loying amounting to some $80,600 horses and $25,000 miles. Canadian breeders are getting none of this money, as the field in Canada is kepit for the purchases for the Canadian contagents that are sent across the sea.

The King's Plate favorite, the Brookdale Stable's Lady Urzon, has wintered well in trainer fleorge S, Walker's care at Barrie. The Hyment string this season will bumber about a dozen, headed by the Goldfüch horse, Tippecance, that was one of the grantlest individuals ever seen here. Tippecance will be used in the stud of Brookdale on his retrement from racing. The Barrie horses have a tothe track available on the home farm and will not come to Woodbine for another month.

G. A. COCHRAN'S TWO-YEAR-OLDS

New York, March 12.—The Bifford A. Cochran horses are being wintered at Aiken, S. C. and are under the care of William Midgeley, who has trained from successfully for two sensous. For the coming year first call has been obtained on jockey Lilley, one of the best lightweights that rode at New Orleans. Several purchases have been made and fifteen two-year-olds are being fitted for the coming senson. The youngsters are all credited with first-class trials. They are:

of the bill is that Governor Hays' approval of the bill could not be recalled by the governor after he had signed it.

Governor Hays denied that he signed it, but his signature appears upon the bill, which has been filed with the secretary of state, Secretary Hodges at first refused to accept it, but on the advice of Attorney General Moose, he finally did so. Afticavits have been secured from six prominent arkansans who were with the governor when he signed the bill, who testify that Governor Hays did sign the measure, and photographs of the bill showing the signature with the sylfadle "dis," In black ink In front of the "approved" in red ink and the "dls," crossed out and then written in again above with "and vetoed at 4 o'clock, March S," added in idack link. This last was not written on the bill when Governor Hays left his office with it Monday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock, It is claimed.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., March 12.—Frank M. Taylor arrived here this morning from New York on another horse scouting expedition. He and Charles Hill will go to Louisville tomorrow morning to look at horses at Churchill Downs and Donglas Park.

Emil Herz was here from Louisville today and said that he is pointing Short Grass for the Camden Handleap.

Jockey Frank Murphy, under contract to Tom Brawn reported today to W. J. Young, for whom he will exercise horses for a month.

Jockey T. Van Dusen arrived from New Dricans today with E. J. Scott, who has Breenisedge.

John McLernand is here with Joe D, and Fatima.

Given Tompkins, whose stable wintered at Warrenton, Va., has acquired a new jumper in Sheila, a tour-year-old by Ormondale—Namey D. John t'lark, formerly jockey for "Miss Chamblet," will do the riding for the Tompkins stable this year. This does not mean, however, that Kermath has retired from the saddle permanently. Reports of that veteran jockey's condition are highly encouraging and indicate he may resume his place under the Tompkins colors before the season is over.

W. H. Snyder, who spent the winter in America, has arrived in France, where he has charge of the F. R. Hirchcock stable. While on this side trainer Snyder was hopeful of getting his charges safely out of France, but his plans alsearried and at the last moment the French government refused the necessary permission. Both the owner and trainer, however, are sangulae of getting the string back to America before the approaching racing season in the east is over.

HAVANA STEWARDS ACTIVE

J. KNIGHT IS RULED OFF AND JOCKEY WOLFE LOSES PRIVILEGES OF COURSE.

Former Is Charged with Violation of Rule in Offering to Make a Wager for Jockey Ural on Horse with Which Latter Won.

Havana. Cuba. March 12.—The racing at Oriental Park this afternoon was overshadowed by the ambouncement of several rulings by the stewards in the Interest of clenn sport.

It was announced that for violation of rule 180 in offering to place a wager for jockey W. Fral when he rode Yellow Eyes to victory in the first race on March 4, J. Knight had been ruled off the turf. Jockey II. Wolfe, who rode Gold Cap in the same race, was ordered to be barried from all privileges of the Cuba-American Jockey Club.

Another ruling Issued by the stewards suspended jockey C. Jones for the remainder of the meeting for masatisfactory riding.

Jockeys C. Miller and F. Robinson each scored a double during the afternoon. The former won the onening race with the well-backed favorite, Scarlet Oaks, and scored a nose victory on Wanda Pitzer over Brlar Path in the five and a half furlong handicap that had the place of honor on the program, incidentally, Wanda Pitzer reduced the track record for the distance to 1963.—In the preceding race Envy had made a new track record of 1:013 for five furlongs. The track is steadily becoming heter and seems destined to take rank with the fast courses of America.

First choices accounted for half the eard and, as all three were well backed, the layers had an inprofitable day.

The day's proceedings were enlivened by two run-ups in selling races. Wanda Pitzer was hid up from $200 to $400 and became the projecty of J. W. Hedrick. Uncle Man was lid up from $200 to $705 and was longht in for J. 11. Lonchelm by trainer John Powers.

EASTERN STABLES TO RACE AT BOWIE,

New York, March 12.—Practically every representative eastern horseman will participate in the coming meeting of the Southern Maryland Fair Association at Bowie, which will hangurate the sension of 1915, in so far as the eastern circuit is concerned. Having been assigned the place on the eastern schedule held until last spring by Norfolk, this spring's meeting at Rowie, from April 1 to 14, inclusive, will be conducted under the anspices of the Jockey Club. E. C. Smith will represent the controlling racing body in the east in the stewards stand, Joseph A. Murphy will preside at the inish and A. B. Dade will do the starting.

Prominent eastern horsemen who have made bids for stalls include Angust Belmont, Richard T. Wilson, C. K. G. Billings, Frederick Johnson, Clarence H. Robbins, W. R. Coe, Harry Payne Whitney, Capt. E. B. Cassatt, Archibald Barklie, Henry J. Morris, James Fitzshmons, Herbert L. Frait, David J. Leary, W. T. Anderson A. L. Aste, John Whalen, Edward Phelau, M. Daly, Michael J. Leonard, G. W. Changdon, G. M. Odom, Richard F. Carman, Dr. J. S. Tyree, Ral Parr, Samnel Ross, Capl. P. M. Walker, William Garth, A. D. Parr, W. T. Ryan, Frank Frisble, L. R. Doctor, F. M. Bray, Gifford A. Cochran and David Gideon.

James Fitzshmons, Edward Phelau and Michael Daly will ship to Bowle contingents of the strong Quincy Stable which will send Trojan, winner of last season's Futurity, to Kennieky to try for the Derbys at Latonia and Lonisville. And in addition to a contingent of the Stables of Mr. Prait and Mr. Morris.

Morris.

The division of the Whitney string that will race at Bowle wintered at Norfolk under the eye of Albert Simons. It is made up mainly of two year-olds. The tarman, Garth. Ross, Tyree, Walker, Ryan and Frisble strings wintered either at Benning or close by in Virginia and Maryland and are well advanced. Gifford tochran's establishment has been at Alken, S. C., since the first of the year and will come north under the management of W. R. Midge-ley, in addition to Figinus and Royal Martyr, Ar. Cochran will show a band of superbly-bred two-year-olds at the new track.

The other stables wintered about New York and Genrali will show in band of superbly-bred two-pear-olds at the new track.

The other stables wintered about New York and they are probably as far advanced as those that spent the cold months farther south. The weather at Gravesend, Sheepshead Bay and Belmont Park has been faverable for training since the early part of February, and the New York trainers have taken full advantage of it. James Pitzsimmons said yesterday at Gravesend that his horses were in better condition for racing than they were in the last fortnight of March, 1914. Samuel C. Hildreth, who is handling the Belmont string, bas been hard at work since the middle of February and such of the horses of the chalrman of the Jockey this iss he will send to Bowle will race under the manage-ment of David Leary, the owner of Thornbill and Hurakan, W. T. Anderson will take the Aste horses down from New York along with his own, and Richard Miller will have charge of the stable of L. R. Dector.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE LAY.

A policy designed to avert any serious clash with Germany over the exploits of the German crulser Prinz Litel Frederick, now at Norfelk, has been decided upon by the administration in Washington. The cruiser will be allowed reasonable lime to make repairs and to replenish stores and then will be required to leave American waters or to intern until the end of the war. The commander of the crulser has stated that six weeks will be required to make his vessel senworthy. Whether this is a reasonable period will be determined by the mavy department. While the Prinz Litel Frederick is at Norfok the state department will conduct a careful investigation of the action of the German commander in destroying line American salling vessel William P. Frye and its cargo of wheat consigned from Scattle to queenstown. Whether the Frye was destroyed legitimately involves many fine points of international law. If the administration decides that the wheat should not have been classed as contraband of war the United States will call upon Germany for reparation. The Frye was valued at $282,000 and the cargo at $15,0,000. In no event will the cruiser he held by the Frited States as security for pessible damages or in connection with piracy proceedings, as has been blutted in some sensational reports. The sluking of the Frye will be made the subject of representations to the German government designed to obtain: (1) A disavourd of the action of the German commander in violating American rights, (2) Damages in compensation for the ship and its eago of whent, (3) Declaration by the German government that American vessels shall be minolested hereafter as required by the treaty with Prussia, unless they shall be guilty of violation of recognized principles of international law, The German embassy at Washington entertains no fear of complications between the United States and Germany because of the destruction of the Frye. Embassy officials say that if it be proved that the grain was not contraband Germany ch he held personally responsible for the safety of Americans and other foreigners in Mexico City. It is understood to have emphasized the importance of keeping railway communication open between the capital and Vera Cruz. Carranza's reply to the American note was generally admitted to be wholly misatisfactory. His action in addressing it to the president, instead of to Mr. Silliman or to the secretary vf state, was regarded as peculiar, to say the least. Carranza's statement that the language of the American note was such as to justify blin in not deigning to reply to it was viewed at Washington as little short of being positively offensive.

President Wilson and the cabinet at a conference yesterday decided that the United States will insist on summary punishment of all the soldiers responsible for the killing of John B. McManus, that adequate reparation be made to the family of the victim and that Zapata shall agree to protect all foreigners. This formal demand was sent to Mexico City, despite a prompt disavowal and promise of punishment made by the Zapata commander to Senor Cordola, the Brazillan minister, who is looking after American Interests.
